Alright guys, now I'm gonna show a variation from the same engagement, okay, because sometimes whenever you try the first position, the person top is aware and then he start defend my entrance and I'm gonna show you a variation, another way that you can engage a different sweep, okay? We're gonna start exactly on the same position, okay, you're gonna follow all the steps, stretch my leg, move my hip, break his grip, engage the lasso guard, face him again and go to the De La Riva position, as soon as I'm here and then I start switch for the pants because I wanna go to the X, he already know and then whenever I'm here and I try to go in, he start close, yeah, his knee, look, he start block my leg, from here will be really hard for me because he start drop his weight on my leg, okay, and also a lot of people they start kill this leg down and then to start walk side and pass my guard, okay, whenever I feel he start close his knee, yes, I'm gonna switch my hand to the sleeve again, that's my secure position, break his grip, come back to the De La Riva and this foot that I have on the lasso, I'm gonna bring back and engage right here behind his hip, okay, one more time, different angle, we're gonna do the whole set up, okay, stretch, move my hip, break his guard, go to the lasso and engage the De La Riva, so the position is gonna be from here, okay, whenever I switch for the pants and then I wanna go to the X, yeah, he start close his knee, you can't see, I don't have space at all to pass my leg, okay, and right here I feel uncomfortable too because his weight is on my thigh and then like it's hard to move, okay, it's really really uncomfortable for whoever is on bottom, what I'm gonna do, so from here I'm gonna switch the hand that I have on the foot and then go to the sleeve again, break his grip and engage the De La Riva again, why? Because this is always gonna be my secured position, if it doesn't work the first one, what I gotta do? I always come back to the secured one, okay, as I'm swimming here, you see my foot is all the time stretched, I'm gonna bring back, look, bring my knee to the same direction as my shoulder, okay, my leg was stretched, I bend my leg and then engage my foot right here behind his butt, on the middle of his butt, okay, and then I'm gonna stop from here, one more time, one more angle and that way you guys can see my foot, same thing, okay, look, my toes, come back, De La Riva, pants, look, whenever I try, you guys can see, right, from this angle, I don't have space at all to pass my leg, what I'm gonna do? Break his grip, come back to De La Riva, bend my leg and look, look at my foot, it's on the middle of his butt and I don't let my foot down, okay, it's always my fingers up, last one, I'm gonna do a little bit more fast, okay, that way you guys can see on the, on the real position, okay, on real time, from here, he start close the knee, yes, and then I can't, I come back, break and engage.
