Alright guys, so another option that I have from here too, okay, is instead of pushing the leg in, okay, I'm going to pull his foot up, kill this hook square to him, and I'm going to grip him here, okay, I'm going to grip him on the top of his knee, okay, just keep my hand open, cup the top of his knee here, okay, and I'm just going to pull it into my hip, because if he can't step on me, it's kind of the same principle as pushing it in, okay, he can't create the angle that he wants. If this foot's in between me and him, he can create the angle. If I push it in, no, he can't, okay, if I keep it past me, he also can't, okay, so I keep a good base and I stay square with him here, okay, so now one of the options that I have from here, gripping the collar, okay, he's going to be like trying to push on me here maybe, okay, I'm going to drop myself down here, okay, gripping his pants, locking this behind, okay, it was like standing here, right, okay, I'm going to pull this in and I'm going to drop, okay, I start to drive this knee down and I pull him to me here, okay, and I'm blocking this leg back, you can see how when I do that, he's already wanting to start to let go of that pant leg, because it's a lot of pressure with my shin on his leg there, okay, here he's going to be fighting, pushing on me, okay, as soon as I feel the moment, I'm going to take this back leg now, I'm going to cut it through, okay, now I come out to a knee slide on the opposite side, I'm just going to step my leg wide, he comes and closes his feet on my leg here and I'm just going to come in and do all this stuff we did on the opposite side here, okay, smash him here to this side, okay, so one more time, okay, maybe this guy is like really hard to get the foot in or every time I put it in, he keeps pulling it back out, okay, it's another option, I come here, okay, start to pull the collar, drop yourself down, drive this knee forward, okay, and come for that pants, okay, try to sit like tall and bring your chest toward the guy here, he's going to be shoving on you here, okay, I'm pulling myself in, okay, drive, drive, drive, okay, as I'm driving that shin, it's going to make him want to let go down there and now I cut the outside leg through, okay, we're over here, I'm keeping his legs open here, okay, I'm just going to cut through, okay, coming in, smashing, okay, and passing through, all right, so one more time, okay, so I decide to pull it out and pin it here instead, grip, grip, drop myself down, okay, open my base wide, drive that knee forward, bring my chest in close, he's going to be shoving hard on me here, okay, I start driving that knee, okay, and I bring the outside knee through, okay, boom, make it like an opposite side knee, side here, he's going to close on my foot, okay, now I do all the same details as the other side, okay, come through, pass to the side control. you
