all right here we go so from from meat hook there's gonna be a lot of different battles going on mainly the guy stepping a knee sometimes the guy will overhook the leg if he does overhook the leg from here it's gonna look like this so this one's gonna be it's called dead meat right so we're here i'm gonna flip this leg up i'm gonna meat hook the guys yeah the guy's playing right here so i really can't get that leg out i'm just kind of overhooking that leg so what i'm gonna do is i'm gonna go under my own leg and i'm gonna work my way to his elbow as i extend out and there's gonna be a free triangle right there boom and of course you got all kinds of action however you want to play from there steering wheel i could even start rewinding and clearing the guy's neck again there's gonna be a lot of action right there but the main position is just and this is all reaction based depends what he's doing right so i'm here boom and he's overhooking that leg to where i can't get it out right i'm going under the leg i need to work my way towards his elbow and as i extend this leg out i'm gonna beat that hand right there and i'm locking my wrong side triangle there's a million different ways to finish but it's where i'm gonna go
