So, now I'm going to show you one tutorial pass from when the guy puts the lapel, the foot on my lapel, and try to enter the single leg X. This position happens a lot, so what I like to do when the guy puts his foot on my lapel is passing my hand on this space from the hand, lapel and his shin and use my hand right here because now I feel more control on his leg than his leg on me so I feel better here. Sometimes the guy uses the other leg on the floor and tries to enter on the single leg X. So I use this moment to do the tutorial on this leg and at the same time I hug the head and make a long step. So, when Jonathan uses the foot on the floor I create the space, so I put my chest up doing the tutorial and at the same time I hug the head and make the long step. This works a lot because Jonathan has his arm on my lapel and his foot and the other hand he grabs my pants so when he uses to get the single leg X and I do the tutorial on this leg I feel free to hug the head and do the long step. So, it's really simple. I'm here, but the big detail is here. You need to put your hand on this space in front of his shin so when Jonathan tries to take the single leg X I clean the leg and go to the long step. So I make the movement so fast so clean and hug the head. So, I'm here get here
